

Can you think of any ways these tools have been helpful to you? Are there any that you want to be more effective for you?

4. Glorifying God goes far beyond Sunday worship services and the music we sing. What does Romans 12:1-2 say that might expand our view of worship?

How might this kind of worship look at your workplace, at home, and in your personal life?

TAKING IT HOME

Looking back at this week's teaching and study, is there anything you want to adjust in order to make sure that your actions always make God look good and advance the Kingdom?

Is there anything else from this week's study you'd like prayer for?

QUICK REVIEW

This Sunday we looked at the topic “Glorifying God with ‘Yes’” in our study of When to Say Yes, When to Say No. Looking back at your notes, was there anything that particularly caught your attention, challenged or confused you?

MY STORY

1. If you asked five random people if all religions are essentially the same, what answers do you think you’d receive?

2. What is your natural bent and personality? Are you more likely to scope out the situation and adjust your actions based on those around you, or are you more likely to say, “this is who I am – get used to it”?

DIGGING DEEPER

1. This week we learned that saying “yes” to glorify God outweighs the fear of “contamination” by associating ourselves with other people’s behaviors. Sometimes we can give Satan far too much credit by overestimating the breadth and extent of his power. Look up the following verses and jot down what they tell us about the spiritual confidence that we should have.

1 John 4:3-4

Deuteronomy 31:7-8

2 Kings 6:8-23

How would you describe your own awareness of God’s power in our world as it’s portrayed in these passages?

2. Knowing and understanding God’s ultimate power in our life and our world makes a big difference in how we live out our faith. Yet it would also be foolish to underestimate the power of our great spiritual enemy. Read the verses below and then identify the strategies Satan uses and write down specific modern-day examples that come to your mind.

John 8:44

2 Corinthians 4:4

2 Corinthians 11:14-15

3. What tools has God given us to avoid the enemy’s traps?

Ephesians 6:10-13

1 Peter 5:8-9
