Philippians 2:12-16
Week 10 / 4.3.2016

What things, circumstances, cause us to miss the bigger picture of what God is up to in our world?

What are some helpful ways to change those behaviors in ourselves?
How can we go about helping one another?

In Philippians 1:27 Paul challenges us to live our lives in a manner worthy of the gospel. What does that look like when we do it together?

When Paul invites us to work out our salvation; what do you suppose he is talking about? (remember this is plural - not your own personal salvation)

Paul is challenging us not to get caught up in grumbling and complaining (that's just too easy). What kinds of things happen when we do get caught up in all that negative talk and dialogue in life?

When people are motivated by guilt and shame what does this produce in people's lives?

In verse 12-16 Paul is reminding his friends of what they already are. Children of God. When we remember who we are how does this affect the way in which we live our lives?
