Growth Group Homework

For the Week of March 6, 2011

This week's homework is shorter than normal because in your groups, you'll look back on how God has worked, take Communion, and fill out the end of quarter feedback forms. Next week is your last Growth Group of the quarter, so there will not be any Growth Group homework. Our spring Growth Group quarter will begin the week of April 3, 2011.

QUICK REVIEW

1. Looking back at your notes from this week's message, what challenged you the most?

What questions do you have?

MY STORY

1. As you look back on this quarter, what are one or two things about your Growth Group experience that you have appreciated most? (It can be time spent together, how your group has encouraged you to continue to live your life for Christ, spiritual breakthrough, growth challenge or anything else.)

DIGGING DEEPER

1. From this week's message, how would you summarize the motive Jesus wants you to have to do what is right?

2. List as many observations you can find from these verses about the benefits of having this pure, singular focus on God when doing what is right:

Psalms 86:11

Matthew 5:8

1 Chronicles 28:9

1 Peter 4:11

3. Putting our hope and joy in gaining people's attention is fairly unstable. There are times when we get people's attention, and there are times when we don't. How does Habakkuk 3:17-19 motivate you to find your supreme joy in God?

REMEMBERING

God's ultimate work in our life and His love for us is exhibited through the sacrifice He made on the Cross. Communion is one way we remind ourselves of all that He has done and all He's calling us to become. This week, your Growth Group will conclude by taking Communion together. To prepare for this, take a moment to read Psalm 103:8-14 and 1 Corinthians 11:23-26 reflecting on the significance of Christ's forgiveness of our sins.
