

TAKING IT HOME

1. Why is it important to imitate Christ's humility in the midst of Christian diversity?

2. On Sunday, we learned that "all things are yours, whether Paul or Apollos or Cephas." What encouragement does this give you?

3. What are some practical steps you can take as a result of this week's sermon and homework?

MY STORY

1. Looking back at your notes from this Sunday's teaching, was there a particular point, verse or comment that caught your attention, challenged you, or raised a question?
2. This week we talked about how different Jesus-loving churches have different "flavors" or "personalities." Think of a few different churches you have either belonged to or visited in the past. What "flavors" or "personalities" would you use to describe them?
3. When we visit Jesus-loving churches with personalities that are different from we're accustomed to, it's easy to have a critical spirit or react to them. Can you relate to this? How so?

DIGGING DEEPER

1. In Philippians 2:1-2, Paul is writing to a church in a city called Philippi. What issue do you think Paul is addressing in their church?

Why do you think this issue keeps coming up in various churches?

2. Reading verses 3-4, what is Paul's solution?

How is this helpful advice? What is difficult about it?

3. Continue reading verses 5-11. What is shocking about Jesus in this passage?

What do you think would help us develop this same attitude of Jesus toward others?

If we lived as "servants" in the midst of Christian diversity, what do you think would be the result?
